Rides September 27 & 28 Club Picnic

Club Picnic at Stillers Bruin property.

To summarize Nick's equation (see treasurer notes) the club will provide the beer and grillables (burgers, dogs, possibly chicken). Everyone is asked to bring a side dish (salad, fruit, vegetable, dessert). Club members are free; guests are $10 per person.

The last 2 meetings the interest in the picnic has been less than enthusiastic so we need to know how many are coming. PLEASE e-mail me kmarburger59@comcast.net or call Nick 412-916-8090 and let us know how many will attend. Hope we can get a good turnout.

September meeting... Cycle Gear, Allison Park

- 21 Riders Attended
- Picnic is coming
- Cycle Gear extended hospitality to the club members who milled around checking out the extensive and diverse and street and dirt bike accessories and necessities. Thanks to Kenny and his Crew.

Several members went to Colorado riding last month. Mark Augustine summarized the event as "rocks, hills, trails and mountains.....you should go sometime." In addition to his terse summary Jeff Plugh had some photos available on his laptop to further validate Mark's enthusiasm.

Still an issue with several club members; requests for snail mail newsletters. Mike Perry (V.P.) said he would look into it. This will take volunteer effort along with club dollars. Otherwise it ends up all funded by club money. Newsletters are expensive. Call Mike if you feel you really need a paper version.

Dave Nicklas won the "100%" raffle.
